Buy with Confidence...

The vast majority of our products are Pressure treated to preserve the wood and prevent rotting. Pressure treatment is superior to other preservative methods because the preserving agent is infused deep into the timber rather than applied to the surface. Newly treated timber has a slight light green tint or green spotting on the surface caused by salt leaving the timber during the treatment process. This will fade over time and does not affect the durability of the product but it will not rot. On most products we are offering an impressive 10 year Guarantee against rot so you can buy with confidence.

Pressure treated products should not be treated with any other products for the first 3 months to allow the product to dry naturally.

Timber is a natural product – any changes in temperature and humidity cause it to expand and contract and splits and cracks will appear over time but this will not affect the strength or durability of your product.

If you are concerned about a split or crack, generally if a 2 pence piece will fit easily into it then we would ask you to email us a photo so we can investigate.

Every effort has been made to provide up to date factual information, but as our policy is one of continual improvement we reserve the right to modify or change specifications as necessary. No liability will be accepted for errors and omissions. All guarantees are conditional and if you are in any doubt as to the terms and conditions, please feel free to contact us. All sizes where quoted are approximate and in metric. Products have been measured to maximum exterior dimensions including roof overhang unless otherwise stated. Some specifications may vary due to availability and product improvements. Colour has been applied to some products for photographic purposes only.
